Dedication:

In Berkeley, CA there is a large hill that is steeper and longer than on any other in the San Francisco Bay area. A long road stretches straight up this hill at a 45° angle for nearly a mile; You probably wouldn't want to look in your rearview mirror while driving up it. At the top of this hill sits a little house surrounded by a picket fence facing the San Francisco Bay. This is the home of my teacher and dear friend, Elinor Armer. This piece is written in honor of her 75th Birthday celebration and her home on the hill.

Duration: 2:30
